

READING

BINGO

Recommended for 3rd thru 6th grade students

A book written by a Latinx author	Contains an African American young woman	A poetry book	Your favorite chapter book	A book set in a different century
A book about someone who senses the world in a different way	A book released in the summer of 2020	A book set in another country	A book with a person with a physical disability	A book about a library or set in a library
An adventure set out in the wilderness	A graphic novel set in the future	Your Choice	A book with an Illustrator of color	A book with animals as the main characters
Graphic novel with people of color	A book set in Central or South America	A book written by an Asian or Pacific Islander author	A book released in the summer of 2010	A bilingual book
A book set in another state in the USA	A book with a Muslim main character	A book set in a different culture	A book with a Native American protagonist	A book written by a Black female author

One World, Many Stories

Kensington Never Stops Reading